

Unit #3 “Test”/ Learning Reflection & Application

For this assessment, you will locate three examples from the popular media to demonstrate your understanding and learning around the concepts of Privilege, Oppression, Intersectionality. The goal of this assessment is to provide a reflection on your learning and demonstrate your understanding of these concepts along with your comprehension of the assigned course materials.

You will respond to THREE short answer questions. Each question can earn up to 35 points. For each short answer question, write a 250-300 word response to the question that demonstrates your understanding of the key concepts

For each of these THREE questions, successful response will:

- A link or embedded image that you have located
- Specific references to the course materials. Except for the specific media example you are asked to include in some of the responses, DO NOT use any other outside materials to shape your responses.
- A demonstrated understanding of the key concept in the question
- Be coherent and adhere to conventions of standard English spelling and grammar

Question #1 For this short answer question, locate a recent example of the concept of PRIVILEGE. The example could be a recent news article, an advertisement, a clip from a popular television show or film, or a photograph of something you encounter in your physical environment. Your chosen artifact must provide a clear example of the concept of PRIVILEGE. Include a link or embedded image file in your response.

Your response to this question should be 250-300 words and should include the following:

- A very brief summary of the example you have selected. What is it exactly?
- A clear explanation and analysis about how the artifact illustrates the concept of PRIVILEGE.
- Connections made to key course concepts, including but not limited to, social institutions, patriarchy, racism, sexism, socioeconomic status, compulsory heterosexuality, and heteronormativity.
- References to at least TWO sources in the course materials (not including the artifact itself)
- Coherence and adherence to conventions of standard English grammar and spelling.

Question #2

For this short answer question, locate a recent example of the concept of OPPRESSION. The example could be a recent news article, an advertisement, a clip from a popular television show or film, or a photograph of something you encounter in your physical environment. Your chosen artifact must provide a clear example of the concept of OPPRESSION. Include a link or embedded image file in your response.

Your response to this question should be 250-300 words and should include the following:

- A very brief summary of the example you have selected. What is it exactly?
- A clear explanation and analysis about how the artifact illustrates the concept of OPPRESSION.
- Connections made to key course concepts, including but not limited to, social institutions, patriarchy, racism, sexism, socioeconomic status, compulsory heterosexuality, and heteronormativity.
- References to at least TWO sources in the course materials (not including the artifact itself)
- Coherence and adherence to conventions of standard English grammar and spelling.

Question #3 For this short answer question, choose ONE of the following topics and provide an analysis of the topic using the lens of INTERSECTIONALITY in your analysis.

- BREAST/CHESTFEEDING
- BIRTHING
- PARENTAL LEAVE
- UNEMPLOYMENT
- HEALTH INSURANCE
- CHILDCARE/DAYCARE

Your response to this question should be 250-300 words and should include the following:

- A very brief summary of the selected topic.
- A clear analysis of the topic from an intersectional perspective.
- Connections made to key course concepts, including but not limited to, social institutions, patriarchy, racism, sexism, socioeconomic status, compulsory heterosexuality, and heteronormativity.
- References to at least TWO sources in the course materials (not including the artifact itself)
- Coherence and adherence to conventions of standard English grammar and spelling.